After going through the core rule book, a potential Changeling Storyteller would be well advised to thumb through this book. The lion's share is devoted to the Changeling's take on the history of the World of Darkness, with a great deal of material on the Interregnum (when the Sidhe had left) and the Accordance War, which can provide hooks for developing a background for a chronicle's setting.

Additionally, secret societies and political viewpoints (conservative, moderate, radical) can provide ideas for bringing intrigue into a story. Finally, a chapter is devoted to assisting the Storyteller in creating a chronicle by suggesting possible themes, moods and story seeds. Players might be able to draw inspiration from the historical chapter, and they are given a new merit, background and art (Metamorphosis!) and two new kith to try out.

Wondering what the Kithain were doing all those years before the Resurgence? Wanna know what the commoners REALLY think of the ruling minority? Sick of flinching to a bow every time someone says Gwydion? Get this book

The history of the commoner's, new backgrounds, and a new art-metamorphosis. It's time to have the power to turn into the creatures from our own fantasy stories! Yes, you can turn that prince into a frog.
