Customer Reviews

Okay, before I start, I just wanted to say that the quote in the cut wasn't mentioned in the manga. But it was a quote in the actual book said by Fang. I just wanted to start out the review in a unique way. Okay now, Moving On! Things that I enjoyed about the manga: THE AWSOMESAUCE COVER: Need I say more? Nudge looks adorable on the cover, even though her eyes aren't gray. Iggy. Iggy? Iggy!: There's a bucket-load of Iggy angst in this manga(as in the original book) and I have to say I loved it. For all you who didn't read the actual book, SPOILER ALERT. I loved the part when Ig found his parents. I swear, he had me crying. And, plus, he's still sexy, as usual :) The Design: The way the artist drew these characters were fabulous. Its like they actually look the same they do in real life...just they're eyes aren't that big. My favorite character design is Nudge's, though because she looks exactly like how I interpret her to be. Fax: I'm not usually a die hard Fax fan, but this book brought out the couple in a whole new light. They just looked so freaking cute together.*SPOILER

ALERT* Especially the part when Fang flicks Max's head...I cracked up at that. Max Ride: I dunno, I just really liked her in this manga. Ever since the latest Max Ride book (Angel: A Maximum Ride Book, for those who haven't heard) she kind of just threw me off. But I guess since revisiting her in her old days, I fell back in love with her. Page 179: There's something there that just made me laugh. If you get the manga, check it out. Thing's that annoyed me: How the book ended: I thought that the book ended a bit too early. And the whole book was just short in period.
