Customer Reviews

I keep one in the boat (for me) and one on the lanai (mostly for guests). My only complaint is that the latter has a tendency to wander off, so I might be interested in a subscription.

Nice and waterproof and clearly readable! Would highly recommend. I will use this in the boat or on land. Portable.

I got this for my brother in law to help with identifying the fishes he occasionally catches off the dock. It's nice it is laminated so will last longer than a perishable paper copy.

Great reference ! Ordered this before our vacation and arrived in plenty of time. Will be a tackle box staple Got this for my son who is learning to fish. He loves to find the fish he catches to see what it is called.

This was just the right thing for the tackle box. Well laminated and very good illustrations.

I have several from this company and they are very good and stay nice and dry

Great resource! I love it!
